

Easy as CST: Unlocking the Church's Potential

 Caritas
AOTEAROA NEW ZEALAND

The Catholic Agency for Justice, Peace & Development

Common Good

He Painga mā te Katoa

Commitment to the common good means respecting the rights and responsibilities of all people, so that all can flourish.

“Beside the good of the individual, there is a good that is linked to living in society: the common good. It is the good of ‘all of us’, made up of individuals, families and intermediate groups who together constitute society.”
Caritas in Veritate, #7, 2009